

Christmas

January 5, 2025
St. John's Church

Welcome

We are so happy you are with us.

All you need to worship with us is in this bulletin. Please greet the person near you, stand and sit as you are comfortable, and bring your voice and heart to the service. We say the words printed in bold together.

Christmastide

Today is the Second Sunday after Christmas and we continue to worship and sing in the words and spirit of this major feast day.

The season of Christmas begins on December 24 at sunset, the beginning of the day in the Hebrew tradition. This is why churches generally have evening or midnight services for Christmas Eve. Christmas itself lasts twelve days.

Twelve Days of Christmas – yep, that is what the song is about. Amazon.com and other giant retailers have encouraged an erroneous assumption that the Twelve Days end on Christmas Day and must therefore begin on December 14. Not so. The Twelve Days do not come before Christmas day, they begin on Christmas Day, and end on January 5.

Christmastide is twelve days in which to celebrate, perhaps more reflectively than in ages past, the great gift of God that comes to us in the sweet, beguiling form of an infant.

Last Minute Gifts

Looking for good places to donate before January 31st?

We could still use a few bucks for the glass crusher, which should be up and running in early 2025. And the food pantry can stretch a donation carefully to feed the hungry – talk to Sue Woods.

Cheri Mateo will carry a check to the women's shelter, Geoff Baumann is on the library board, Laura Greathouse will get a check to Homesteader Roots to support tree planting here in town, and Jane Woods represents Plaza Diane.

Gather

Living God, on this holy day we gather—to sing with angels, rejoicing in your work;
to wait with Joseph, trusting in your promise;
to sit with Mary, cradling your love,
to stand with shepherds, amazed at your glory,
to welcome children into our family.

May the good news of Christmas inspire us to tell the world of our great joy:
for to us is born a Savior,
the Messiah, the Lord.

Glory and praise to you forever!
Amen.

Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

God of grace and truth,

whose word brings light to birth in the heart of a darkening world which fears a love it cannot name:

may flesh be blessed and born anew by a truth which leaves the heavens and walks the waiting earth;

through Jesus Christ, the Word incarnate.

Amen.

Scripture

After the reading

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Sermon

Prayers

God of steadfast love,
we thank you in this joyful Christmastide for all the blessings we enjoy:
the shelter of home and the comfort of family and friends;
the company of the faithful with whom we celebrate Christ's coming;
and for your love, which shines as a light in the darkness.
For these and many other blessings besides, we offer our thanks and praise.

God of mercy,
in this holy season, there are people in need of your tender mercies:
we pray for those who are ill and for those who are recovering;
for those whose sadness is made heavier by memories of Christmases past or by some present pain.

We pray for those who do not have enough:
enough food, enough money, enough companionship, enough hope.
Because there is not yet peace on earth, we pray for those in harm's way.
Protect them from war, violence, and cruel oppression.
For these and many other needs, we offer our intercessions.

God of hope,
through long ages, you have given to your people dreams and a vision of the time when there will be no more war, no more pain or sorrow, no more death.
We pray this day for the time to be fulfilled, when we will be reconciled to one another, to all creation, to you.

Fill us with hope as we wait upon your coming realm.
Give us the will to work for justice and peace and the courage to follow you into every place.
We thank you for dreamers and visionaries who respond with imagination and joy to what you are doing in the church and in the world.
We entrust ourselves and those we love to your care.
In Christ's name we pray.

Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

We stand.

I believe in God whose light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never smother it.

I believe that on a night in Bethlehem
there was born a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

I believe in the Word who has become incarnate,
our very flesh and blood,
yet full of grace and truth.

I believe in the blessed appearing of the salvation of our God, that is for the happiness of all people.

I believe in his name as Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace;
of the increase of his rule and of his unique peace,
there will be no end.

The zeal of the God of hosts will do this.

This I surely believe!

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

We may greet one another in the name of God.

Invitation to the Offering

Rejoice! For I bring good news and great joy to all people:
today is born to you a Savior, Jesus Christ the Lord.

Music

“Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence” Unknown.

Eucharist

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

In every time and in every place, it is right that we should give you thanks and honor,
for you shelter your people from age to age.

You came to us as a brother and a friend, in a likeness we could recognize as one of our own, showing us the face of the Most High God.

Through the centuries, your witnesses have taught and proclaimed your Word, giving shape to the truth that your promises are sure and your presence everlasting.

In communion with all the saints, with angels and shepherds, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy God, author of time, one among us, breath of our bodies, you are as close to us as skin and infinite as stars.
 You came to us as Jesus of Nazareth, child born in a cave, a carpenter and a rabbi, who on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and gave thanks;
 broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying,
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is ris - en.
 Christ will come, Christ will come a - gain.

Life giving God, as your word came flesh and lived among us, come among us now in the fullness of your grace and truth.
 Make us holy as you are holy, that your words become flesh anew today.
 Send your Holy Spirit upon this bread and wine and make them be for us the body and blood of Jesus.

Bless us with your presence, and let your Holy Spirit infuse our hearts and minds with joy
 so that we may live to praise you, O God, holy Trinity, now and forever.

A - men, A - men, Al - le - lu - ia!
 A - men, A - men!

Lord's Prayer

As our Savior taught us, we now pray.
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The leader breaks the consecrated bread.
Alleluia! He is born.
Christ the Lord is born this day.
The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us full of grace and truth.
The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Communion

Please come to the table, whether you are single, married or divorced, drinking, using or sober, abled, disabled, or ill, gay, straight, or discovering, wealthy, getting by or in debt. Christ meets us all.

We approach the altar beginning with those sitting in the last rows; they shall be first. Approach the rail from the left aisle and take a cup; used cups go on the tray on the right. You may receive only bread or only wine. Our Eucharistic bread is handmade and robust. If you prefer a wafer, please tell your server.

Receiving the bread and wine is a central act of worship in the Episcopal Church.

Music

“O Little Town of Bethlehem,” Phillip Brooks.

“Who is He in Yonder Stall,” B.R. Hanby.

Prayer of Thanks

We stand.

Let us pray.

God our Father,

you have made known to us again

the coming of Jesus Christ:

confirm our faith

and fix our eyes on him

until the day dawns

and Christ the Morning Star

rises in our hearts.

To him be glory

both now and for ever.

Amen.

Hymn Verses 1, 2, and 4

Refrain

Go, tell it on the moun-tain, O-ver the hills and ev - 'ry - where; Go, tell it on the moun-tain That Je-sus Christ is born.

Verses

1. While shep-herds kept their watch-ing O'er si-lent flocks by night,
2. The shep-herds feared and trem-bled When high a-bove the earth
3. And lo, when they had heard it, They all bowed down and prayed;
4. Down in a low-ly man-ger The hum-ble Christ was born,

1. Be-hold, through-out the heav-ens There shone a ho-ly light.
2. Rang out the an-gel cho-rus That hailed our Sav-ior's birth.
3. They trav-eled on to-geth-er To where the Babe was laid.
4. And God sent us sal-va-tion That bless-ed Christ-mas morn.

Music: Spiritual.

Sending

Go now, glorifying and praising God for all you have heard and seen.
We go in peace to love and serve, in the name of Christ. Amen. Alleluia!

Postlude

“The Sussex Carol,” Craig Duncan.
